Anti-Bullying Statement
Be Safe and Have Fun!

The IRFU values all its members, especially Age-Grade Players, and will not tolerate repeated, bullying behaviour by an individual or group against others. Respect is one of our core values!

The IRFU is committed to tackling bullying so that everyone can feel safe within their rugby club and among team players. Incidents of bullying behaviour are breaches of the IRFU Codes of Conduct

All club members should:

Respect each other & everyone working as part of our rugby club

Tell someone you trust if you are experiencing bullying behaviour

Remember that if you are being bullied – it is not your fault & it is not okay

Stand up to bullying behaviour – talk to the Club Welfare Officer

Not feel under pressure to change to fit in with the person who is bullying

Remember it is okay to tell someone how you feel or what you have seen or heard

Signed: Helena Murray (Club Welfare Officer) on behalf of Enniscorthy Rugby Club and its members.
